

Friday 7/26/2024	1800 Garret Way WestWood Mall main hall next to Outer Limits Fun Zone	Vendor Areas
8 AM - 10 AM	Vendors setup 8:AM Vendors must be Set Up by 10 AM -/-Stage setup by 10 AM
10 AM -11PM Kick off	Guest Check-in Vendors Open to Public 10:00 AM - Intro by Hannah Violette Begin Speaker Introduction Stage End of hall-Crowd questions and stories (town hall style) Break for lunch	Outer Limits Fun Zone opens for food and fun Artist/ Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
11 AM - 12 PM Questions till 12:30	Scot and Hannah Violette / Squatch America Squatch America is the husband and wife team, Scot and Hannah Violette. Scot's personal sighting in 2018 took his Bigfoot research hobby to new heights and, in 2020, they hit the road to pursue all things Bigfoot full-time. Combining Scot's anthropology and Hannah's sociology backgrounds, plus their shared love of travel, they have spent the last two years crisscrossing the United States, collecting and following up on Bigfoot reports, speaking to eyewitnesses, and even documenting fresh, new evidence of the species.	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
12:30 PM - 2PM	Vendors open to the public /Open stage stories	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
2 PM - 3 PM Questions till 3:30.	Nico Spadafora is the owner and lead educator for The Fossil Team and lead researcher and manager at the North American Bigfoot Center. Nico has had a lifelong passion for all things furry, scaly, and feathery. Along with the study of paleontology, he's spent many hours working with big animals like lions, crocodiles, and elephants, and many hours out in the woods tracking wildlife and teaching survival skills.. Using his knowledge in paleontology, ecology, and zoology as well as his tracking skills, Nico has become a valuable asset to the research at the North American Bigfoot Center.	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
3:30 PM - 4 PM	Vendors open to the public/Open stage stories	Outer Limits Fun Zone opens for food and fun	Stories
4 PM - 5 PM Questions till 5:30	Dr. Jeff Meldrum Dr. Jeff Meldrum is a Full Professor of Anatomy &amp; Anthropology at Idaho State University (since 1993) his lab houses well over 300 footprint casts attributed to relict hominoids around the world. He conducts collaborative laboratory and field research throughout the world, and has shared his findings in numerous popular and professional publications and presentations, interviews, and television appearances. He is author of Sasquatch: Legend Meets Science (Tom Doherty Publishers, 2006). In addition, he has published two field guides to relict hominoids (Paradise Cay Publishing, 2013, 2016). He is editor-in-chief of the scholarly refereed journal, The Relict Hominoid Inquiry (www.isu.edu/rhi), now in its twelfth year.	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
6 PM - 7 PM	Dinner Break Vendors open to the public	Stories on stage	Stories
7 PM - 8 PM	Michael Freeman Michael Freeman is the son of the late research pioneer Paul Freeman and is an expert on his fathers evidence and legacy. He has studied the Blue Mountain evidence extensively and is the author of the upcoming book The Freeman Bigfoot Files.	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
8 PM	End of Friday Events Vendors break down	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables closed	Stories

Saturday 7/27/2024	1800 Garret Way WestWood Mall main hall next to Outer Limits Fun Zone	Vendor Areas
9 AM - 10 AM	VENDORS SET UP OPEN BY 10:AM GUESTS CHECK IN-
10 AM - 11 AM	Welcome / Intro / Run Down Intro by Hannah Violette Speaker Introduction Stage End of hall-Crowd questions and stories (town hall style) Vendors open to the public	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open
11 AM - 12 PM Questions til 12:30	Marc Myrsell Marc Myrsell is a life long land surveyor in Oregon and Washington. Born in 1966, he became enamored with the quest of lost mysteries. While the re- discovery of the 1924 Ape Canyon Cabin is his claim to fame and infinite riches, he continues to venture in to the mildew and dust of shadowy paper archives in search of long forgotten stories; taking this evidence in to the field to look for physical evidence of historical monster attacks.	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Jamin'
12 PM - 1 PM	Vendors open to the public / Lunch break	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
2 PM - 3:00 PM Questions til 3:30	David Ellis David Ellis Member of the Bigfoot Field Research Organization, BFRO since 2006, and has been an ongoing core member of the Olympic Project since 2010 where specializes in field research and audio analysis for the team. 5	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
3:30 PM - 5 PM	Stories/Open mic. Vendors open to the public	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
5 PM to 6:30 PM	Dr. Jeff Meldrum Dr. Jeff Meldrum is a Full Professor of Anatomy &amp; Anthropology at Idaho State University (since 1993) his lab houses well over 300 footprint casts attributed to relict hominoids around the world. He conducts collaborative laboratory and field research throughout the world, and has shared his findings in numerous popular and professional publications and presentations, interviews, and television appearances. He is author of Sasquatch: Legend Meets Science (Tom Doherty Publishers, 2006). In addition, he has published two field guides to relict hominoids (Paradise Cay Publishing, 2013, 2016). He is editor-in-chief of the scholarly refereed journal, The Relict Hominoid Inquiry (www.isu.edu/rhi), now in its twelfth year.	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
6:30 PM - 8 PM	Speakers Panel Open Questions - Stories- Michael Freeman/David Ellis/Dr. Jeff Meldrum/Marc Myrsell/Scot and Hannah Violette/Nico Spadafora	Artist/Speaker/Vendor tables open	Stories
8 PM End of 2024 BigFoot Rendezvous	Vendors Closed -Break down-DOORS CLOSE AT 9:00PM	Artist/Vendor shut down	Stories